Maryland Greek Independence Day Parade 2010
Sunday, March 21, 2010 at 2 PM in Baltimore's Greektown

The Greek Independence Day Parade will be held on Sunday, March 21, 2010, in Baltimore's Greektown at 2PM. The Parade celebrates an ethnic holiday, reminds us of our ancestors' sacrifices, and is a wonderful event for our children. It does, however, involve expenses. This year, the parade committee has been reorganized and is under new leadership. As such, we are starting fresh and need your support. Your contribution can help insure that Greek and American flags line the parade route, banners span the streets, and that we have materials to build reviewing stands and money for printing and promotional costs, city permits, and so on. Everyone involved in the production of the Parade is an unpaid volunteer.

Organizations or individuals may choose to be listed in the Parade Acknowledgment at the below-listed levels of giving. If you contribute at one of these levels, but wish to remain anonymous, please let us know at the time of your gift. Otherwise, your contribution will be recognized in the Parade Acknowledgment.
